Benefits Of Demat Account

One-stop storage

Users can track their investments and transactions through a single Demat Account.

Safety and security of assets

There is no fear of loss, theft or damage to the stocks and securities owing to the Demat Account's digital format.

Elimination of Odd-lots

Buying and selling of single units are possible with a Demat Account.

Reduced costs

Stamp duty and other handling costs are eliminated due to the digital format.

Easy liquidation and monetisation

A Demat Account offers easy liquidation of assets.

Effortless KYC Updating

Users can easily update any change in address, mobile number or nominee details via a single Demat Account.

List Of Documents Required To Open A Demat Account

To open a Demat Account requires specific documents. Below is a complete checklist of documents to open a Demat Account.

1 PAN Card

It is mandatory to enter correct PAN details in the account opening journey. Image of PAN Card required only if PAN verification fails.

2 Signature

Sign on a white paper and upload its picture. Ensure that your signature matches the one on your PAN card.

- 3 Proof of bank account
 - As proof of your bank account enter correct IFSC code and bank account number. Image of a cancelled cheque or your bank statement/passbook for the last six months required only if Bank verification fails.
- 4 Financial document

To trade in derivatives such as F&O, you need to submit the soft copy of the Income Tax Return (ITR) statement, salary slips for three months, bank statement for six months, net-worth certificate, Demat holding statement, or holding report. This is optional and not mandatory.
